MONTUNO PRODUCTIONS TO HOLD THE SECOND ANNUAL BAY AREA LATIN JAZZ FESTIVAL, CELEBRATING AFRO-CARIBBEAN AND LATIN AMERICAN MUSICAL HERITAGE AND TRADITIONS

The Festival Will Celebrate San Francisco Bay Area Communities' Diversity as an Engine of Economic & Cultural Vibrancy, Resiliency, and Strength

SAN LEANDRO, CA – Montuno Productions, Inc., is happy to announce The Second Annual Bay Area Latin Jazz Festival, scheduled to be held on Saturday, August 21, 2021, from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. at Rowell Ranch, a picturesque, park-like venue operated and maintained by the Hayward Area Recreation and Park District (HARD). Rowell Ranch is located at 9275 Dublin Canyon, Rd., Castro Valley, CA 94552.

The re-scheduling of the 2nd annual festival (contingent upon final approval by Alameda County Dept. of Public Health), which was originally scheduled for August 15, 2020, has been met with a great sense of anticipation and enthusiasm by Bay Area Latin music fans, including those who attended the 1st annual in 2019. "It gives Latin jazz aficionados (and lovers of live music) in the San Francisco Bay Area something to look forward to as the country continues to deploy highly effective vaccines (and treatments) against COVID-19," said Luis Mendoza, president and CEO of Montuno Productions, the producer and promoter of the festival.

The celebration will showcase the cultural/musical contributions of Latin Jazz, with an emphasis on Afro-Caribbean and Latin American influences. Festival attendees will be able to enjoy a diverse array of food, music, dance, and artistry. There will be booth space available for Bay Area merchants, food vendors, artisans, and community organizations.

The 2021 festival features an exceptionally talented and diverse lineup, including the headliner, Bobi Céspedes' band, featuring invited guest artist, seven-time Grammy-nominated percussionist, John Santos; Latin Jazz Collective with John Nava; Montuno Productions All-Stars Salsa Orchestra; Ricky's Grupo Afro-Latino; René Escovedo Latin Jazz Sextet; and MC & DJ, long-time Bay Area radio personality, Luis Medina.

Festivalgoers will also have access to several pre-festival events, including livestreaming concerts, and exclusive footage of interviews with Latin music luminaries in the San Francisco Bay Area and beyond. They will also be able to purchase festival-related merchandise (online), including T-shirts, and DVDs of video footage from the 2019 festival.

As part of its community outreach efforts, Montuno Productions will seek to bring small, independently owned local businesses, community organizations, and music fans together, with the goal of making a positive contribution to the arts and the economic and cultural vibrancy, resiliency, and strength of East Bay communities.

Montuno Productions (MP) understands that as the country slowly emerges from the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, some potential Festival ticket buyers, vendors, and sponsors may feel apprehensive about making a financial commitment to participate in this and other similar events. To assuage those concerns, Montuno Productions has established a no-questions-asked full refund policy for ticket-buyers and vendors, and a negotiated refund policy for sponsors.

As part of this policy, MP will honor requests for prompt (immediate) refunds to ticket-buyers and vendors right up to the day before the Festival (August 20, 2021). This policy is in line with the 2020 refund policy, when ticket buyers and vendors request for refunds (due to the postponement of the Festival because of the COVID-19 pandemic) were promptly honored.

For the 2021 Festival, MP is in close communications with both Hayward Recreation and Park District (HARD)—Rowell Ranch’s administrator—and Alameda County Department of Public Health., to monitor (improving) public health conditions which MP believes will allow for the successful production of the Festival on August 21, 2021.
